

Monthly educational sessions. We will be scheduling education sessions on a Thursday evening in various months throughout the year. Club members are welcome to suggest subjects they would like to learn or something they can teach to other members.

Sessions will be at the Shelby Activity Center.

If you want to attend, please email t12griffin@gmail.com so we have an idea of who is attending.

January 8, 2026 6:30 pm

Explore many of the features in your camera. This session will be an open forum to help you find features and tools in your cameras you don't know about or understand.

Updating the firmware in Camera and Lens. Firmware is the what controls the computer that is our cameras and lenses. Manufacturers will periodically release updates. Updating is easy, but must be done correctly.

February 5, 2026 6:30 pm

Composition Rules . We will explore what many refer to as the Rules of Photography. Understanding and learning to use these tools can elevate your images to the net level. These Rules or Techniques make up the new category for images at our monthly meetings.

March 5, 2026 6:30 pm

Introduction to Milky way and Night Sky photography. Learn about various tools and Apps to use to plan your shoots. Planning is paramount for this type of photography. If this is a genre you are interested in learning, this will give you a good start. Prime Milky Way season starts in May , so lets get ready.